What's New?

You get the best of both worlds with Water Joe — water for hydration and caffeine for energy. And it's not just any old tap water. It's pristine artesian water, tapped from a protected aquifer deep beneath the land in northern Wisconsin, combined with a shot of natural caffeine extracted from coffee beans, which is tasteless and odorless. Think of it as a sugar-free, carb-free, calorie-free alternative to energy drinks. Water Joe comes in a 24 pack of 20-ounce bottles. Just ask Al's about it, 763-544-6635.

Craig's Column

Since I couldn't find a sunny beach to hang out at, I'm off looking for more customers to sign up.

Thanks for your business

Craig

Bob's Box

One last trip with my daughter, I'm going to be crying in my coffee when she goes off to college...

Let me know how we can help. We value your business.

Johnstone
Supply
in Golden Valley

Johnstone Supply is a HVAC and refrigeration wholesale distributor, with more than 350 independently-owned stores around the country. If a contractor wants a heating or AC system, or just a part for a repair, Johnstone Supply is the place to go. They started out in 1953 in Portland, Ore., with a commitment to finding the best products for their customers and servicing them like nobody else. And they still pride themselves on quality products and top of the line service; their catalog lists more than 50,000 parts, supplies and equipment. Kim provides that high-quality service to customers in the Golden Valley Area. She works in accounting and office management, handling both internal and external customers. When she is away from the office she loves to travel and hang out with family and friends. Because she is so concentrated on customer service, she appreciates all that Al's Coffee does for them, especially the reliability of the coffee and service.

June Al-erism: Overspill

It's when a friend or co-worker gives you too much information on office politics and relationships. Just ask Al's about it, 763-544-6635.

Looking for a fast, fun and easy fundraiser? Well... you've found it!

Al's Coffee is helping schools, sports teams, churches and other organizations raise thousands of dollars — the easy way. Everyone drinks coffee! From my own experience with school, scouting and other community groups, I saw a clear need for a fundraiser that reduced the demands on volunteers' time, but also for a product that members could confidently sell to groups who will gladly purchase again...and again. I will tailor your fully customized fundraising program to meet your groups needs, goals and strengths. Combine this with it being an item that people actually want, and you have a 'can't miss' fundraiser that will not only raise money for your important projects, but build pride, spirit and awareness!

For further information on our coffee fundraising programs call me, Becky Nowlin at 612-559-5218
